Provider Profile

Information provided by the provider describing their agency:

Allied Rehabilitation Centers in Enfield provides programs and services for consumers with developmental disabilities from towns throughout North Central Connecticut. These include Day and Residential Services, Employment Training, Transitional Services, Waiver Services, Autism Services, Sports Training and Recreation, Transportation Services and Self Advocacy. Day Services include Habilitation Services, Leisure Services, Work Adjustment, Work Readiness and community-based Work Crews while Residential Services include Community Living Arrangements and Supported Living and in-home Personal Supports. Allied's consumers are referred by the State Department of Developmental Services, Bureau of Rehabilitation Services and Workers' Compensation Commission as well as by the U.S. Department of Labor Office of Workers Compensation Program and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. Allied works closely with local Boards of Education to provide school-to-work transition services to high school students enrolled in Special Education programs. As an approved Employment Network for the Social Security Administration, Allied provides services and supports to individuals participating in the "Ticket to Work and Self Sufficiency" program. Allied also provides contract services to area businesses and state offices.
